

Homework Sheet 05

1

A 3-layered architectural style consists of 3 hierarchical layers, while a 3-tier architecture consists of 3 tiers, which are not necessarily hierarchical. The layers are also seen more in a functional way, while the tiers are objects interacting with each other.

2

